A CALL TO ARMS

A Revolutionary War Bibliography

Clayton Library
Center for Genealogical Research

Houston Public Library 1985

73.3
MURST

This list of references is a checklist of available material in the Clayton Center for Genealogical Research, Houston, Texas. It represents titles devoted to military information for the period covered, as well as selected references found in periodicals and other publications covering the American Revolution, which have been specifically recommended by various sources.

Local histories dealing exclusively with the Revolutionary period have been listed, and more general histories when they include pertinent information on this period. Not listed were the many, many state and county histories which have a chapter on the Revolution.

Entries are arranged, first, by the collection, general or state, in which they are found, and then alphabetically by author or compiler. If of particular significance, the original date of publication may be shown.

Grateful acknowledgement is extended to Mary Lewis Ulmer, former Librarian of the Clayton Library, for the title of this bibliography.
